Instinctif
PARTNERS

We are delighted to count on Instinctif Partners as our Silver Sponsor for the 2022 MEIRA Annual Conference & Awards.

Commenting on the upcoming MEIRA Conference, Frédéric Cornet, Managing Partner - leading Capital Markets across Africa and the Middle East, says: "The region's capital markets are set to leapfrog as the consistent flow of activity and IPOs attract more regional and international interest. Naturally, communications strategies and IR programs need to evolve and now more than ever, the MEIRA conference is the prime occasion to meet with other key players, driving the development of IR best practice in the middle east and beyond".

Tim McCall, Managing Partner and Head of Capital Markets, UK, adds: "I have specialised in Capital Markets communications and investor relations for over 20 years – both as a senior adviser and as director of corporate affairs with a UK FTSE 250 company. In that time, I have helped companies in multiple sectors and geographies understand and engage effectively with their shareholders, ensuring they get maximum value for their efforts and/or managing more challenging times. I am excited to attend the MEIRA Conference & Awards to learn from such an impressive group, whilst offering attendees the benefit of my experience when capitalising on opportunities or managing any challenges that they may face".
